Guaranteed PhD Scholarships (Domestic Students)

Interested in doing research in engineering or computer science at Australia's number one research university?(1)

The ANU College of Engineering and Computer Science is offering guaranteed entry to the PhD program and a scholarship for domestic applicants with first class honours.(2)

Scholarship packages up to $35,000 per annum (tax-free) will be available for successful candidates. Selection is based on academic merit and research potential. The scholarship will be at least at the rate of an Australian Postgraduate Award $22,500 (2010 rate), plus consideration for supplementary funding.

The Serafina project at ANU explores the potentials of multiple, small, fully autonomous, but organised submersibles.

To be eligible for a guaranteed PhD scholarship you need to apply by 31 October 2009.
Outstanding applications will be considered earlier.

These scholarships are only open to Australian citizens and permanent residents, and New Zealand citizens.
